

Harbor Humane Society
April 5, 2007

Contact: Nicole Jipping
(616) 392-6050

COMMUNITY TO EXPERIENCE LIFE OF A SHELTER ANIMAL IN “CAGED FOR CRITTERS” EVENT

(West Olive, MI)- Harbor Humane Society will be hosting its first annual “Caged for Critters” fundraising event on Friday, April 27th from 3pm to 6pm at 14345 Bagley Street in West Olive.

The event gives the community an opportunity to have fun while raising money for the humane society. According to event chairperson Nicole Jipping, “Caged for Critters” is important because it demonstrates to the community the value of an animal shelter.

“Caged for Critters helps raise awareness on issues surrounding the Harbor Humane Society, including spaying and neutering, and animal overpopulation,” said Jipping.

The “jail and bail” style of the event is intended to give participants an inside perspective on the hardships that shelter animals must endure.

Participants can nominate someone or themselves to join the fun. You may nominate someone by giving a $5 surrender fee to Harbor Humane and the nominated individual will be contacted and informed of an offense (i.e. barking too loud, chasing cats, etc.). The nominated person will be given a bail or “adoption fee.” If not paid in time, the culprit will be caged until the adoption fee is paid.

All funds from this event go directly to supporting the animals at Harbor Humane Society. Harbor Humane Society’s mission is to provide a safe harbor for animals entrusted to our care as we strive to secure their future through our outreach and educational programs.

For more information regarding this event please contact Nicole Jipping at 616-392-6050.

###